The Parent and Family Resource Centre (trading as Disability Connect) is delighted to announce the Chinese Families Autism Support Group meeting in September.

There are ways in improving the social skills for children with disabilities. Circus arts enable children with disabilities to increase their confidence and social skills through performances. It also provides opportunity for the natural born performers to showcase their talent. Circability is one of the New Zealand Circus arts organisations to offer different classes for different age groups of children with different abilities. They also offer Power of Inclusion (POI) programme for disabled students who are leaving school.

Thomas Hinz, Creative Director at Circability will deliver the presentation in English and it will be interpreted into Mandarin. The presentation is starting promptly at 10am.

Please note that the workshop will start promptly at 10am - Programme for the day:

9:30 Registrations Open (tea and coffee)

10:00 Presentation: Circability, Thomas Hinz, Creative Director at Circability

12:00 Lunch and Networking

12:30 Finish

All Chinese and Asian families raising a child with autism are welcome to this meeting. Please inform as many parents as possible about this meeting.
