The Parent and Family Resource Centre (trading as Disability Connect) is delighted to announce the Chinese Families Autism Support Group meeting in June.

Using stories is an effective method to help social learning. Through this workshop, parents will learn how to write social stories to help their child, young person or adult understand rules, expectations and prepare for changes or events.

Sharon West from IDEA Community Specialist Services will continue to deliver the second “Social Story” workshop focusing on different Social Story examples and resources. This workshop will start promptly at 10am – the presentation will be delivered in Mandarin. Print copies of the presentation (in English) will be available.

The presentation will be interpreted into Mandarin. Print copies of the presentation (in English) will be available.

Please note that the workshop will start promptly at 10am - Programme for the day:

- 9:30 Registrations Open (tea and coffee)
- 10:00 Presentation: Different Social Story examples and information by Sharon West from IDEA Community Specialist Services
- 10:30 Discussion and group/individual work
- 12:00 Lunch and Networking
- 1:00 Finish

It is not essential to have attended the first “Social Story” workshop in May. All Chinese and Asian families raising a child with autism are welcome to this meeting.

For catering purposes it is important to register for this meeting. You can register in English or Chinese by emailing Tingting at Disability Connect tingting@disabilityconnect.org.nz . You can also phone 636-0351 to book over the phone (English) Click here for a map link to the venue.
