The Parent and Family Resource Centre (trading as Disability Connect) is delighted to announce the Chinese Families Autism Support Group meeting in May.

There are various types of therapies that families may be interested for their children with Autism. Dance and Arts therapy are one of these therapies. The topic of this meeting will be on Dance and Arts Therapy, a brief introduction to Dance Therapy, how it helps children with Autism and the type of programmes offer by Dance Therapy NZ. There is also a short experimental workshop for parents.

Julia Hanna, Arts Therapist from Dance Therapist NZ will deliver the presentation in English and it will be interpreted into Mandarin. Print copies of the presentation (in English) will be available. The presentation is starting promptly at 10am.

Please note that the workshop will start promptly at 10am - Programme for the day:

9:30 Registrations Open (tea and coffee)
10:00 Presentation: Dance and Arts therapy, Julia Hanna, Arts Therapist at Dance Therapy NZ
